EVER CHANGING V.2022

RIDING THE WAVES INTO THE 21ST CENTURY

Keynote Luncheon:

Rebecca Dye

Federal Maritime Commission

This year, for the first time ever, a U.S. President used the State of the Union address to speak about the greatest challenge facing customs brokers and freight forwarders – the broken supply chain. When Congress passed the Ocean Shipping Reform Act, it was enacting Commissioner Dye’s vision and solutions. Since 1998 she has been the Federal government’s engine for improving the supply chain and thoughtfully addressing the challenges of ocean transportation.
